A Two-Million Dollar Fire in London, England.

Big Fire in London.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—A terrific conflagration is now (2 p. m.) raging in this city. The scene of the fire is Queen Victoria and Thames streets, near Black Fryar's bridge. Numerous warehouses are blazing, and London seems destined to suffer one of the most destructive fires in its history of recent years.

Fourteen fire engines were soon upon the spot, and the firemen did their utmost, but with little success, to check the course of the flames. A high wind was blowing, which materially added to the fury of the flames, while hindering the firemen in their efforts to save property.

Terrible sheets of flames and clouds of hot smoke were frequently whirled dangerously near them. The large wholesale fur manufactory of Revillon Freeres, 127 to 141 Queen Victoria street, was doomed shortly after the fire had gained strength and headway. Following this were a large copper warehouse, a number of fancy dry goods stores and the Gulcher Electric Light and Power Company building, which were also a complete prey to the flames. The flames spread rapidly on all sides, as if there were no firemen or fire engines present.

Immense crowds of people watched on the bridges over the Thames and in the streets running down to the river, where a good view of the conflagration could be had. Many expressed the hope that this disaster would at least bring about a reform in the London fire brigade.

As the fire progressed it spread to the headquarters of the Salvation Army. The Salvationists were working like beavers in their efforts to place the records and other property of the Army in a place of safety.

At 4 p. m. the fire was rapidly spreading in all directions. All buildings from the corner of Bennett's Hill to No. 135 Queen Victoria street are either blazing fiercely or else are smoldering ruins.

The fire originated in the building of C. Davidson & Sons, paper manufacturers and bag makers at 119 Queen Victoria street. This building is a large structure and was completely gutted, as was also that of Adolph Frankan & Co., manufacturers of pipes and importers of tobacco. The old St. Bennett Church on upper Thames street, a famous Welsh church, also caught fire.

At 4:30 p. m., what would be termed in New York four large "blocks" of buildings were in flames and were burning steadily.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon St. Bennett's Church was completely destroyed. The firemen managed to save the headquarters of the Salvation Army, and was then announced that the fire was under control. It is estimated that $2,000,000 will cover the losses.

Captains Rainfall in California.

NEVADA CITY, Dec. 30.—The storm which commenced yesterday still continues. It snowed a little in the city this morning, but quickly changed to rain again. The ridges to the east and north are white. The rainfall to date is eight inches.

DAYTON, Dec. 20.—A splendid rain has fallen in warm showers during the last twenty-four hours. More grain has been sowed in the interior of the county this season than ever before.

VACAVILLE, Dec. 30.—Rain commenced falling last night about 9 o'clock, and continued throughout the night with increasing violence. The gauge this morning showed a fall of .39 inches.

The Moslems Defeated.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Advices from Uganda state that in a recent conflict on the frontier the Christian forces defeated the Moslems, and that peace has been established throughout the country. The Protestants have opened church services, which are attended by great crowds. Many of the natives have accepted the Christian faith, and have been baptized.

The Mail Fairly Opened.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs this morning received the following dispatch from agent D. F. Royer, dated Pine Ridge Agency, Dec. 29th: "On Wounded Knee Creek this morning, while the soldiers were disarming Big Foot and his band, after their surrender, a fight took place which resulted in the killing of about three hundred Indians and several soldiers, including Captain Wallace, with a number of wounded. Two strike and party, who were camped on the White Clay river, just below Red Cloud's house, opened fire on the agency from the hill-top opposite the boarding school, wounding two soldiers. The police returned the fire, killing two of two strike's Indians and wounding two others. Two strike and his band have retreated in a northwesterly direction from the agency, and it is supposed he is trying to make his way back to Bad Lands. Thus far the Pine Ridge Indians have taken no active part in the war, but Big Foot, Slow Bear, Kicking Bear and two strike's bands have been and are active in the disturbance."

Secretary Proctor conferred with the President this morning regarding Indian matters. In the absence of official details regarding yesterday's engagement, the Secretary declined to talk about it. He said, however, that inasmuch as General Miles was given ample discretionary power to act, it was not necessary to send him any further directions. He decided that no action is necessary to-day at this end of the line.

OMAHA, Dec. 30.—Colonel Forsythe reached Pine Ridge Agency this morning with the seventh cavalry and the surviving prisoners. He reports twenty-five of his men killed and four wounded.

A Bee special from Rushville says: At daylight this morning 30 Indians belonging to two strike's band tried to capture the provision train of the sixth cavalry, two miles from Pine Ridge. The Indians were all killed. People are flocking into town by the hundreds from the territory bordering on the reservation.

To-Day's Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Owing to the railroad complications over the Omaha bridge, the opening stock market this morning showed rather a reactionary temper and first prices were irregular and one-eighth to three-eighths lower. Fractional concessions from these figures followed in many shares, but the strength and activity of last evening soon reasserted themselves, and almost everything was placed on a higher level than at the opening. Sugar certificates, however, were weak, and after opening at 59½, against 60½ last evening, fell to 58½, recovering only a fraction. A strong tone remained till the end of the hour, and at 11 the market was fairly active and strong at the best prices reached.

Sugar is at 56½, its lowest point, and 2½ below the best price of the forenoon. Union Pacific showed a marked weakness.

Tax-Collector Robbed—An Escape Captured.

TUCSON (A. T.), Dec. 30.—This morning tax-collector M. S. Snyder was attacked in his office by two masked men and robbed of $4,000. Snyder shot his assailants twice and received a flesh wound himself. The men escaped.

Antonio Yappa, one of the murderers who broke jail yesterday, was captured last night. Several Mexicans have been arrested for harboring the refugee. The Sheriff has offered a reward for Verdugo and the other escapees.

A Murder Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—The trial of Leong Ah Kuey, charged with murder, was resumed in Judge Murphy's court this morning. Deputy Coroner Wagner was examined regarding the inquest held at the morgue on the body of Kuey's victim, and Dr. Esté testified in relation to the autopsy which he made on the body. Officers Price and Hickey were also examined.

Death of an Old Resident.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—I. M. Hellman, uncle of I. W. Hellman and W. M. Hellman, the well-known bankers, died to-day of paralysis. He was one of the oldest residents of the city and a retired merchant.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—A light rain, followed by fair weather in the western portion of northern California and snow in the mountains.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. R. P. Chapin, who for several weeks has been visiting Reno friends, will leave this evening for Erie City, Pennsylvania.

V. E. Paine, the mail contractor, and L. G. Seaton the mail man, are in Reno to-day.

WORK OF CONGRESS.

Hoar Concludes His Election Bill Speech.

DEATH FROM KOCH'S LYMPH.

Parnell, O'Brien and Gill have a Conference.

Scotch Railroad Strikes Begin- ning to Weaken.

The Omaha Bridge Jangle.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—President Dillon of the Union Pacific made a statement to-day in regard to the Omaha bridge trouble between the Union Pacific, St. Paul and Rock Island roads: "On May 1, 1890, what purported to be a lease of the Union Pacific bridge terminals at Omaha and the use of its main tracks to the westward limits of Omaha was made with the St. Paul and Rock Island roads. These leases are for a consideration of about half what the company received last year from its bridge tolls. Acting under these leases of our terminals at Omaha, the Rock Island advertised to open a competing line to the Union Pacific for its whole length from Omaha to Ogden, thus paralleling the Union Pacific for its entire length. The Government directors have requested the presidents of the companies to suspend any action under this lease until such time as they could be legally advised as to their validity."

In regard to the statement of President Miller that the bridge trouble would interfere with the President's agreement, Edwin Gould said: "This is a difficult matter, that has nothing to do with the maintenance of rates."

Getting Away From Reporters.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—La Presse announces that a Parnell-O'Brien conference will take place at Paris, not at Boulogne-sur-Mer, and that the report that the conference was to take place at Boulogne was intentionally spread to throw off the scent the armies of reporters who are watching every movement of the Irish leaders.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—Notwithstanding the announcement made by La Presse it is a matter of fact that very few people seem to know where the actual meeting will take place. All sorts of rumors were circulated, possibly to deceive the newspaper representatives. It is considered quite possible that La Presse might have been mistaken. O'Brien arrived early this morning, and appeared undecided whether to continue his journey to Boulogne or wait at Amiens, but finally, upon the receipt of a telegraphic message, started for Boulogne at mid-day.

BOULOGNE, Dec. 30.—Parnell, Gill and O'Brien have arrived here, and a conference will take place here this afternoon.

Parnell and O'Brien held a conference for half an hour, but nothing is known as to what transpired.

How They Stand.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The statement is received that Higgins' North River Bank shows an excess of liabilities over assets of $42,000.

The schedules of the assignment of Colburn, Chanancy & Co., brokers, show the liabilities to be $200,000; nominal assets, $710,000; actual assets, $10,000. The difference between the nominal and actual assets is due to the depreciation of the value of securities and worthless accounts.

A Woman's Cause.

MARSEILLES, Dec. 30.—A duel was fought near this city to-day. The principals are said to be a Hungarian nobleman, believed to be the son of an ex-minister, and the son of a distinguished Parisian. An alleged intrigue upon the part of the wife of the nobleman and the Parisian is understood to be the cause. The keenest curiosity is manifested here and in Paris as to the identity of the parties concerned.

Too Much Lymph.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 30.—Two patients being treated by the Koch system died at the St. Petersburg Hospital yesterday after receiving the third injection. Both suffered intensely before death.

Becoming Discouraged.

GLASGOW, Dec. 30.—The aspect of the railroad strike continues to improve from the standpoint of the railroad company, and the strikers are getting discouraged.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Gorman made the point of no quorum when the Senate met to-day, and the Sergeant-at-Arms was sent to secure the attendance of the absentees.

It was 11 o'clock before a quorum was secured and the journal of yesterday read.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate the credentials of Frederick T. Dubois as Senator from Idaho for the term beginning March 4, 1891. Referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Reagan gave notice of two amendments to the Aldrich closure resolution.

The morning hour having expired, the Senate resumed consideration of the Election bill, and Hoar continued his speech commenced yesterday in its advocacy.

At the conclusion of Hoar's speech Wolcott spoke against the bill. He said the time consumed in the consideration of the bill would be better employed in considering other and more important measures before the Senate. He disapproved of the provisions of the bill.

At the close of his speech the Election bill was laid aside, and the bill reported from the Finance Committee was taken up.

Stewart attacked the bill, and spoke in favor of free coinage.

Reagan followed, speaking in favor of free silver coinage.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Election bill.

In a speech in opposition to it Teller intimated that the closure rule would be called up next Thursday.

HOUSE.

After the journal of the last day's session was read and approved the House adjourned until Friday.

Mississippi Justice.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The Star says: The killing of John Prentiss Matthews, Postmaster at Carrollton, Miss., by young McBride, will probably turn out to be a case celebre. A Star reporter yesterday saw J. M. Matthews of Mississippi, who was the Republican candidate for Congress against General Hooker at the last election, and who is also a brother of the dead man. Matthews had just received the following telegram from Carrollton: "John was murdered by a mob. He had been notified by a dozen men that a mob was going to kill him that day. He saw men with their guns and got a rifle. When he did this the Sheriff arrested him and placed him under bonds. John pointed three men out to the Sheriff and asked him to arrest them and protect his life. The Sheriff refused. It was a plot and all were in it. When he went to the hotel for dinner, McBride, who was still in his drug store, shot him down with his shotgun, killing him instantly. The murderer goes free, and all because they must have the Postoffice."

"My brother," said Matthews, "was only 21 years old. He was the first Republican Postmaster to take the Carrollton office for many years, and it was freely said that no Republican should hold the office."

Corbett and Jackson Matched.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Slavin's terms for a match with Corbett in the matter of expenses are not only regarded by some as exorbitant, but it is considered that he displayed a certain degree of distrust in the good faith of the club by wanting $1,000 before leaving England. His agent in London will to-day receive the following reply: "Slavin's terms are unsatisfactory to the directors. Have matched Corbett and Jackson. L. R. Fulda."

Meany Sentence.

TROY (N. Y.), Dec. 30.—J. J. Reed, indicted for tampering with the switches of the Central road during the big strike, was sentenced to-day to seven years imprisonment at the Clinton prison.

Thomas L. Cain and Arthur Boett, under indictment for the same offense, were given shorter terms.

A Serious Charge.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—A man giving the name of George Huttlesmaier has been arrested, charged with being a member of a gang that for some time has been robbing letter boxes. Checks, notes, bonds and drafts representing over $300,000 were found in his possession.

Courthouse Burned.

MARYSVILLE (Kan.), Dec. 30.—The Marshall county Courthouse was burned this morning. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $15,000. It is thought the fire was the work of an incendiary.

A Leaking Ship.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—The bark Ferris, Captain Thompson, from Nainaimo for Kahili, put in here to-day, leaking badly.

Powerless to Act.

PORTLAND (Or.), Dec. 30.—The situation of the discharged railroad laborers remains unchanged. The Mayor to-day received a telegram from General Manager Clark of the Union Pacific Railroad, at Omaha, saying the local officers are powerless to act, but the matter has been referred to the general office in the East.

Large Space Wanted.

OROVILLE (Cal.), Dec. 30.—The citizens of Oroville have organized an exhibiting association to make a display for Oroville and vicinity at the State Fair to be held at Marysville, and against making a first-class exhibit for the resources of Butte county. One half of the pavilion will be asked for.

Unable to Identify Him.

PORTLAND (Or.), Dec. 30.—William McDonald, arrested a few days since on suspicion of being George Brooks, wanted in Lancaster, England, for forging a will, was discharged to-day, the prosecution being unable to identify him.

Suspected of Crookedness.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 30.—Four prisoners escaped from the jail at Newport, Ky., last night. The jailer is suspected of having afforded them help.

DIED.

MOHONEY—In Virginia City, Nev., Dec. 29, 1890, Davis F. Mahoney, aged 26 years.

WURTLE—In Winnemucca, Nev., Dec. 25, 1890, Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wurtle, aged 5 years.

Senator Stewart on the Force Bill.

Hon. Wm. M. Stewart, in his speech before the United States Senate on the 19th inst., in opposition to the Force Bill, after reviewing the reconstruction acts of 1866-7, and later of 1868-9, in which he took a leading part as a member of the Judiciary Committee, and for which he reported the resolution for the fifteenth amendment, relates how it was finally passed on the 26th day of February, 1869, after an all night session, and then says:

The Legislature of Nevada was about to adjourn, and at my instigation the amendment was telegraphed by the Nevada delegation to the Legislature and repeated back. The Legislature ratified it on the 1st day of March on the telegraphic dispatch. I called on General Grant at his headquarters and acquainted him with the passage of the resolution by the two Houses. He asked me what he could do to aid its ratification. I replied, "Put it into your inaugural." He called in several military officers who were in an adjoining room—I think General Sherman was one of them—and said to them that the fifteenth amendment had passed both houses of Congress, and that he would recommend its ratification in his inaugural; which he did in the following language:

The question of suffrage is one which is likely to agitate the public so long as a portion of the citizens of the nation are excluded from its privileges in any State. It seems to me very desirable that this question should be settled now, and I entertain the hope and express the desire that it may be by the ratification of the fifteenth article of amendment to the Constitution.

He then reviews the history of its adoption and the subsequent legislation for its enforcement, in which he took an active part. He opposes the passage of the Force Bill on the ground that it is inexpedient and imperfect, and closes by saying:

But if no time shall be given the colored man to acquire education and property and standing in the community; if it is a political necessity that he should now be used as a political factor in national politics, why not so declare? Why advocate the passage of a bill which simply exposes him to persecution and outrage with benefit to no one? If you mean that he shall vote and that his vote shall be counted, where he is in the majority, then place it in the power of the President of the United States to use the military force, to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, to declare martial law, if necessary, to the end that your law may be executed. If you do not mean that the law shall be enforced, in the name of humanity do not pass it; do not pass it, and consolidate the white vote; do not pass it, and bring the trained power of the late Confederate States upon the colored man in his defenseless condition.

Sugar Beet Industry.

The corner stone of a beet sugar factory was laid last Friday at Lehi, twenty-nine miles south of Salt Lake City, Utah. It is intended to crush 350 tons daily, which will make from 35 to 40 tons of sugar. The factory is expected to run from 130 to 160 days each season and will employ 100 men. It is estimated that it will require from 3,000 to 4,000 acres of land yielding 20 tons of beets per acre to supply this factory, and the labor of 1,000 people during cultivation and harvest. The buildings of this factory will cost about $40,000, and the machinery will increase the cost of the plant to $500,000, while the whole investment will be about half a million dollars. The foundation is now completed and much of the material on the ground for the buildings, and this has all been accomplished in a month's time since the contract was signed. It will be the largest and best beet sugar factory in the United States, and ready for operation by the 1st of September. The sugar beet seed is to be obtained from France and Germany, and 40,000 pounds of it are now on the way to Utah.

The lead has been taken by Utah for the region of the Great Basin, of which Nevada is a part, and the results will be watched with interest by our people. If it proves a success there, why should it not here, where the soil and climate are precisely the same? The one at Watsonville, Cal., has proved successful, and the one in Utah undoubtedly will. With the conditions the same here, and with factories "to the right of us and to the left of us," why should we go blindly to our death, and eat other people's sugar or go without?

ABOUT ART AND ARTISTS.

THE Duke of Hamilton's pictures brought $3,000,000. MEISSONIER is painting in Venice, where he expects to remain for some time. BENJAMIN CONSTANT, the distinguished French painter, has arrived in this country to decorate a house in Boston. SIR EDGAR BOEHM has just completed his marble statue of the late Emperor Frederick for St. George's chapel at Windsor.

LUKE FIELDS, R. A., who for many years has devoted himself to painting portraits and single figures, is now hard at work upon an important group, after the style of his famous "Village Wedding."

THE Hermitage and Antichoff palaces at St. Petersburg are crammed with pictures and no more can be hung in them, so the Czar is going to establish a National gallery, to be devoted to Russian paintings exclusively.

MEISSONIER's great water-color replica of the painting called "1807" has been engraved by Jaquet. It is said that the engraving gives a better impression of color than the aquatint, which has been criticised as lacking in warmth.

THE Swiss painter and author, G. Bachelin, bequeathed his splendid collection of weapons and costumes to the Historical Museum of Neuchâtel. He left only three or four finished pictures, but an immense quantity of sketches and studies, which are to be exhibited early in 1891.

THE latest imaginative work by George F. Watts is a symbolical figure of a woman, with an eagle's head, a body of a woman, feet of brass and legs instead of hands, which the composite creature digs into its own flesh. One foot rests on a woman lying prone, and the background is full of red and golden flames.

THE Fall Mall Gazette repeats the story of a misunderstanding between the portrait painter, Emile Wauters, of Brussels, and his Majesty the King of the Belgians. The King requested a portrait of himself to be taken, without sittings, from photographs. M. Wauters had the temerity to refuse a request which amounts to a command when a King asks.

RARE PUNGENCIES.

WHEN a man tells his acquaintances that he is sorry he ever got married, it is safe to assume that his wife is sorry, too.

HUMORIST—"My output of jokes is now a hundred a week." Friend—"And what of the returns?" "About ninety."

"Dollars?" "No, jokes."

A PRACTICAL DIFFERENCE.—In former days, when railroad accidents were not matters of daily occurrence, it used to be said that the difference between a schoolmaster and a railroad conductor was that one trained the mind and the other minded the train.

"You have asked to see me?" said an employer to his clerk. "Yes, sir." "What is wanted?" "I wish to make a claim which I doubt not your sense of justice will accept." "Very well—what is it?" "I do the same work as Z, and I am paid a month less than he. Is that fair?" "No, you are perfectly right. I will at once reduce Z's salary a pound."

"Ah, my dear Miss Annie, how do you like the out of my bath?" drawled a sauntering young blood to a bright young girl. "Well, Mr. Witless, really now, since you ask me, I'll tell you that, while I don't always like such short hair, in your case I really do like it, for it is so nicely cut to match." "I don't quite comprehend, Miss Annie. Match what?" "Your brains, of course."

A GERMAN farmer presented to the reigning Prince of his country a turnip of enormous size, grown by himself, with which his Highness was so much pleased that he recompensed the giver with a handsome sum of money. Another farmer, hoping for a similar reward, offered a fine horse to the Prince, who, to his no small dismay, required this present by giving him the big turnip.

MR. FILIPPO (at Miss Clever's table at church fair, with fifty cents in his pocket and every thing in sight out of his reach)—"I'll take a kiss, please." Miss Clever (equal to the occasion)—"Certainly (takes a card and presses it to her rose lips several times, and after wrapping up carefully, hands it to the astonished Filippo)—five dollars, please." [Certain goes down to give poor Mr. Filippo a chance to escape.]

WHAT THEY ARE GOOD FOR.

ORDINARY potato-bugs, dried and powdered, are used for raising blisters. MUSK, derived from two little sacks on the belly of the musk deer, is regarded as a most important remedy for nervous troubles. It would be more used were it not so costly.

REAL hartshorn, made from stag's horns, is a medicinal article now being made into shavings for market, boiled to a jelly and prescribed by physicians for rickets.

THE cochineal insect is mostly known for its use as a dye, but it has also an additional value for relieving neuralgic pains and for checking the spasms of whooping-cough.

THE digestive fluid of the pig is valuable for indigestion or dyspepsia. For the same purpose the fluid is scraped from the inside of the gizzards of barnyard fowls and sold.

POWDERED cockroaches contain an active principle called "anti-hydrophilin," which is most effective in the stimulation of the kidneys and serves as a check to the complaint mentioned.

LEECHES are caught for market in swampy places, mostly with rakes, though sometimes animals are driven in shallow water infested by them in order that they may be fastened upon by leeches and bring them out by the quantity.

THE surface of the sea is alive with vast swarms of minute organisms, both plants and animals, and the "Challenger" investigations have shown conclusively that showers of these keep dropping day and night like a constant rain toward the core of the bottom.

Another Golden Opportunity.

RENO is the birth-place of one of the most successful and far-famed proprietary medicines that the world has ever known, which has not only made its promoters famous, but rich as well.

Another remedy of equal or superior merits, and destined to attain proportionate success and fame, claims Reno for its home. To secure the speedy realization of this, the confidence and co-operation of our citizens is all that is needed. The stock-books of the California Cephaline Company are now open at Finlinger's drug store and contain the names of some of Nevada's most influential citizens and business men. Parties wishing to subscribe for stock should do so at once by applying to the Secretary, or to Rev. J. W. Pendleton, President.

A Great Liver Mediator.

Dr. Gray's Improved Liver Pills are a sure cure for sick headache, bilious complaints, dyspepsia, indigestion, constiveness, torpid liver, etc. These pills insure perfect digestion, correct the liver and stomach, regulate the bowels, purify and enrich the blood and make the skin clear. They also produce a good appetite, and invigorate and strengthen the entire system by their tonic action. Sold at 25 cents a box by J. J. Hodgkinson.

Brain Workers Can ill afford to be without Cephaline, the surest, safest and pleasantest of all headache remedies. Your druggist keeps it.

Fryer's Abolition Cough Balm is guaranteed to give immediate relief in croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and all affections of the throat. Price 75 cents. Sold by W. M. Finlinger, original and genuine Abolition preparation bears the facsimile signature of D. F. Fryer.

Frequently accidents occur in the household which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises, for which such ointment as McLean's Volcanic Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidney, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head aches and fevers and cures a habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, its many excellent qualities commend it to all. It is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

JOTTINGS.

The liberal patronage being enjoyed by Richard Herz proves that people know where to go for the full worth of their money.

For your note, letter, legal and fool-cap paper, patronize C. J. Brookins, who also carries writing tablets of all styles and sizes.

By taking your noon lunches at J. J. Becker's Chicago saloon you save time and an uncomfortable walk through the mud.

O. A. Thurston's news depot is the place to buy stationery at San Francisco retail prices, also pens, pencils, ink, mucilage and masers.

There is no hour of the day or night that a first-class meal cannot be had at the Arcade Hotel and Restaurant, and no better beds can be had in the town.

You should see that your wood-house is well stocked with J. F. Aikens' dry firewood, and your coal-bin filled with his 12 50 cent hard coal.

By keeping your larger well stocked with the quality of groceries carried by E. C. Leadbetter you can always be sure of getting the best to be had for coin.

People from the extreme eastern boundary of this great republic arriving on overland trains, are often heard to inquire for the Riverside Hotel, showing that the fact of that popular resort has crossed the continent.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrates the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the Cal. Fig Syrup Company.

"Is this the best?" Is the question often asked, when medicine is wanted. The following are a few of the medicines of known reliability, sold by Shoemaker & Co., druggist of this place. They have many other excellent medicines, but these are worthy of special mention:

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of severe colds, and as a preventative for croup. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm, a general family liniment and especially valuable for rheumatism. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, the most reliable known medicine for bowel complaints. It is especially prized by persons subject to colic. It has cured many cases of chronic diarrhoea. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

St. Patrick's Pills, or disorders of the liver and bowels, a vigorous and gentle physic that cleanses and renovates the whole system. Price 25 cts. per box.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. For itchy, salt rheum, scald-head, eczema and chronic sore eyes. Price 25 cents.

A Scream of Paper Waves Her Life.

It was an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her more, bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better, fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For further particulars send a stamp to W. B. Coker, Druggist, Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful discovery free at W. F. Fininger's drug store.

he question has been asked. "In what respect are St. Patrick's Pills better than any other?" Try them. You will find that they produce a pleasanter cathartic effect, are more certain in their action, and that they not only physic but cleanse the whole system and regulate the liver and bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by Shoemaker & Co.

Eupesay.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee the Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use prescribed in bringing you good digestion, and constipation, and install instead Eupesay. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle by W. F. Fininger druggist.

A Sure Cure For Piles.

Hemorrhoids are known by moisture, like perspiration causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding piles, is cured by Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. See Druggists or mail; treatise free. Dr. Bosanko, Piquette, O. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

The Place to Buy.

A. Nelson, of the Free Intelligence Office, Virginia street, carries a fine stock of the best tobaccos, Havana and Key West cigars, notions, cutlery, gents' underwear, overalls, buckskin gloves, suspenders and Dr. Willey's Discovery.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winkler's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for all ailments. Twenty-five cents a bottle or three bottles.

THE EXTORTIONATE RATES

Charged by the Pullman Car Company.

The Salt Lake Tribune of the 28th inst. contains the following editorial comment: "It is hard to see on what ground the Pullman Company demand a reduction of 10 per cent. on their employees' wages. If there ever was a monopoly on earth that had its own way, and that made 60,000,000 of people stand and pay tribute, even as the highwayman does, without taking any of the highwayman's risks, it is the Pullman Palace Car Company. Their cars are everywhere, and the prices are most extortionate. In good seasons and bad seasons, in hard times and in good times, there is no more variation in the levies it makes than there is in the motion of the stars. Whenever one of their cars runs a mile they exact their pay for it; whenever a man or a woman looks into one of the cars they levy tribute on the man or the woman, and they send their employees to collect the tribute, and then compel the employees to make their living by levying a charity tribute on the patrons of the cars. It is the one game of everlasting grab which fills the short card player with perpetual envy, which is more certain than a bunco game, because no victim can escape, which has made for the owners in a few years a fortune sufficient to enable them to buy a little empire of their own, and why, with wealth and with all their certainty of increasing that wealth, they should want to reduce the wages of faithful men who work for them 10 per cent. can only be explained on the ground that avarice feeds upon itself, and the more that it gets the more insatiable is its desire for more."

A TERRIBLE DEATH.

A Man Dragged a Mile and Frightfully Mutilated.

A correspondent of the Idaho World under date of December 8th gives the following particulars of the death of Henry Moore, aged 21 years, youngest son of Presley Moore of Alpha, Long Valley, Boise county: "Henry left the postoffice at Alpha at about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. An hour later his team was stopped at Mr. Eastep's, four miles from the office, and poor Henry was found under the overturned sleigh, with one foot fast in the rye. His neck was broken and his skull crushed in. Every rib on his left side was broken and collar bone broken in two places. On following the tracks in the snow, it was found that the team had started to run soon after leaving the office, and had gone two or three miles off the road, then turned and started back across the valley towards the road, and in crossing a gully the sleigh was upset. There was blood all along the track from there to Mr. Eastep's, a distance of a mile."

NEW YEAR'S BALL.

To Be Given by the Reno Guards, at the Pavilion.

The boys of Co. C. are busily engaged in the work of decorating the Pavilion for the grand ball to-morrow night, and the work reflects credit upon the managers. Over 500 yards of bunting have been used in curtaining the windows in the national colors and draping the entrances to the cloak-room and the music stand; an immense star adorns the ceiling, and the headquarters of the military officers are gay with colors. The Armory has surrendered its arms and accoutrements for decorations, and the guns cling to the walls in Longfellow's attitude of "Peace." The hall will look handsome, and as members of the Emmett Guard of Virginia and the Carson Guard, with the Adjutant General and the Governor, are to be present, the dance promises to be the event of the season.

"Gazette" Weather Service.

The cloudiness of the past two or three days has been due to a gradual lowering of the temperature of the air all over the State. This condensation is now attended by a decided fall in the barometer's pressure, and the great storm center which has for a week been making its way slowly towards us over the Pacific ocean is now at hand. I am not able to say if it will pass directly over the State, or as a number of severe storm centers have done in the past two months, go northward of us. It is certain however that the real winter storms are about to set in, delayed as they have been a full month by unusually high barometer pressure all over this State and California. The planting of beans and sowing of canary seed had better be put off a month or two yet. Don't go to the mountains to fish either. C. W. Innes.

Native Sons of Nevada.

The following officers were installed Saturday night at a regular meeting of Fremont Temple, No. 1, Native Sons of Nevada, to serve for the ensuing quarter: C. A. Norcross, P. C.; Robert Lewis, T. C.; T. C. Van Duser, S. M.; H. C. Cutting, Sec.; Frank Coffin, Chron.; W. E. Barney, K. D. B.; F. H. Norcross, Chap.; F. Bristol, Q.; George Goe, W. B.; E. Hardach, Sr. E.; Fred Frey, Jr. R.; Ralph Hawcroft, St.; Gus Moore, V.; Geo. Irwin, Chor.

A Missing Man.

The White Pine News says: Dan Murray, an old miner, well known in Eastern White Pine and Lincoln county, left Jackrabbit about six weeks ago, after a protracted spree, for Hot Creek, Nye county, since which time nothing has been heard of him, and his friends fear he has perished on the desert. Will our exchanges please inquire after him.

Chinese and English Doctor.

Dr. T. Wah Hing, physician and surgeon, late of Virginia City, has arrived in Reno and opened up an office opposite the First National Bank, on Virginia street. He is a graduate of a medical college at Hongkong, China, and is ready to treat any case.

New Year Calls.

The Young Women's Temperance Union will receive calls January 1, 1921, from 2:30 to 9 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. William Webster, corner of Fourth and University streets.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

Marches Fredrick's Commercial Row stand is where you will find all the best brands of tobacco and both imported and domestic cigars.

Denis Mahoney, the man who at Virginia City recently shot himself while resisting the officers who were taking him to jail, died of his wound.

Light showers of rain fell last evening, and during the night a little snow followed, but only enough to give the ground a frosty appearance this morning.

There will be a watch and prayer meeting in the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening. Every body is invited to watch the old year out and the new year in.

So long as the White House continues to sell those warm and stylish winter suits at their present prices there is no need of any one going shabbily dressed.

From a private letter from a friend in Santa Monica, Cal., the Gazette's Christmas number was highly extolled, and congratulations are extended "for the production of such a splendid paper."

Arthur McQuade, eighteen years of age, who was in the employ of the Holmes Mining Company at Candelaria, was killed on the job last night falling over and breaking through the arched roof of a fuel built of brick.

There is more experience, time and brain work represented in the preparation of Hood's Sarsaparilla than in any other medicine. It is this that makes Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar in its curative power, and in the remarkable cures it effects. Give it a trial.

NOT THE POINT.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Man does not live by bread alone any more than in the days of the Nazarene, and many things that were luxuries or fancies then are absolute necessities now.

The man who brings in groceries, drugs, toys or dry goods and keeps them in convenient shape to show and sell, the barber, the broker, the banker, lawyer, preacher and teacher are as necessary to our civilization as the farmer, miller or mechanic, and I did not intend to "Small Trader and Workman" the idea that I would have them work for nothing, or for poor returns. In many places where there is not a great amount of business what there is must pay more in proportion or close, and with the generosity of a newly minted people would rather pay than deny themselves. This is as business-like as any other matter of business.

Johnson Sides Abused.

The White Pine News says in its issue of last Saturday: It is said that Johnson Sides, the Prophet of the new Indian Messiah, is shortly to visit Ely, to initiate our Shoshone braves into the mysteries of the ghost dance. This is simply hog-wash. On two occasions he has been in the Gazette's office and disclaimed against the practices of the alleged Messiah and denounced him as a fraud of the first water. Johnson Sides takes no stock in ghost dances, and advises all Indians to work and earn an honest living.

A Lively Sheet Promised.

Thus remarks the Greenville, Plumas county, Cal., Bulletin: "Before another issue of this paper appears its 'interior half' will depart for Sacramento to attend the session of the Legislature. During his absence, the 'better half' will swing the quill, and we assure our readers that if she makes that weapon half as lively as she does the broom-stick, the Bulletin will be a lively sheet during the next two months."

San Francisco Meat Market.

A Lively Camp.

Thirteen hundred men are said to be employed in the mines and mills of Park City, Utah, their average wages being $3.25 per day.

A Michigan Central Railroad Employee Wins His Case After Seven Years Contest.

While employed as agent of the Michigan Central Railroad Company, at Augusta, Mich., his kidneys became diseased, and from an impoverished and impure state of the blood, my general health was entirely undermined. I consulted the leading physicians of my city, but they were unable to cure me. I then began taking Hibernia's Rheumatic Syrup, and am now a well man. It affords me pleasure to render suffering humanity any good that I can, and I wish to say that I think it is the best blood, kidney and liver medicine in the world.

R. L. LAMBERT, Agent M. C. R. R., Ashton, Mich.

A Wrecked Steamer.

During the late storms on Puget Sound the coasting steamer Badger, while on her way to Nainaimo, was piled high and dry on the rocks of James' Island, so high that the water now does not touch her. She is a total wreck.

Keep Your Blood Pure.

Impure blood, however generated, is always present in the body when pain is felt; it spreads and ferments wherever a weak spot exists.

Take BLOOD-GETTERS' PILLS to make the blood pure and expel all that is harmful to the system. They are the one great and unfailing remedy. They cleanse the bowels and restore equal circulation throughout the body. They preserve the vigor of youth and often save life.

A Pioneer's Experience With Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I am a pioneer in this county, having been here 30 years. Four years ago my little son Elmer became blood-poisoned by impure virus in vaccination. His arms swelled terribly, causing great agony; physicians said the arm would be amputated, and even then his recovery would be doubtful. One day I read about a blood purifier, new to me, and was surprised to learn that it was prepared by C. I. Hood, with whom I used to go to school in Chelsea, Vt. I decided to have my boy try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and was much gratified when it seemed to help him. He continued to grow better as we gave him the Sarsaparilla, and having used 3 bottles is now entirely cured. As Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished such wonderful results, I recommend it all I possibly can." JAMES M. SLEKPER, Upper Lake, Lake Co., Cal.

The City Treasurer.

Of Lowell, Mass., says: "The above is from my brother, whose signature I recognized. I am also glad to testify to the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and to say that C. I. Hood & Co. are considered one of the most reliable firms in New England." YAN B. SLAZAR, City Treasurer, Lowell, Mass.

Stanley's Curiosity.

His Investigation of a Mummified Indian.

An Incident of the Great Explorer's Journey in the Sioux Country - A Quarter of a Century Ago - Burial Customs of That Tribe.

In a recent interview the incident of Henry M. Stanley's part in discovering the mummified body of an Indian maiden in 1867, while with the Indian Peace Commissioners, was given so briefly and hurriedly, says a writer in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, as to put the matter, perhaps, in a disadvantageous light. Giving the facts as they occurred, as fully as memory serves after a lapse of near a quarter of a century, will set the matter right, besides affording an opportunity of relating one or two other personal incidents connected with the Indian method of burying their dead. It is well known that the various bands of the Sioux tribe followed the custom of disposing of their dead by placing them on scaffolds and in the branches of trees, when available, to prevent them from being devoured by dogs and the coyotes or prairie wolves, the hyenas of the western plains.

The first we saw of this method of burial was at Fort Laramie, where in the soldiers' cemetery in the rear of the town and overlooking the barracks, were three coffins, each covered with a pall of bright crimson cloth, elevated on the top of four stout cedar posts some twelve feet in height.

One of the coffins contained the body of "Pink," an Indian woman, well known for her attachment to the whites. In another were the remains of a young child, the daughter of an Ogallala squaw and a wealthy post trader, and the center one contained the body of Non-ka, the daughter of the famous chief, Spotted Tail, the romantic history of whose life and death were eloquently described by the correspondent. Her dying wish was to be buried among the whites, near the fort. In compliance with her request, her father, with three hundred warriors, came down in the month of February, 1866, after a journey of fifteen days, and the commanding officer ordered that the girl should be buried in the soldiers' cemetery. The scaffold was erected and the dead maiden's two ponies were slaughtered and nailed to the posts, the heads and tails of which were still dangling there when we visited the cemetery.

Near sunset a procession of three hundred Indians and all the officers and soldiers of the post marched with the solemn music of the military band to the place of sepulture. The services were performed by Rev. A. Wright, Chaplain of the post. Chaplain Wright kindly furnished Stanley and the writer with a comfortable room, and one day he piloted us two or three miles above the fort to Deer creek, an affluent of the Laramie river, where, in a large grove of cottonwoods, he pointed out some ten or twelve skeletons of Indians, grafted, as it were, on the trees. The bodies were wrapped in blankets and buffalo robes and deposited in a sort of trough made of poles, the ends of which were fastened to limbs at a height of about twelve feet from the ground. Mr. Wright pointed out the wrappings of a chief's daughter that had been reposing for many years undisturbed in a large cottonwood tree, and we began our archaeological explorations. The Chaplain returned to the fort after reminding us that our scalps would not be safe should a stray Indian happen along, as they held it as the highest desecration to disturb their dead.

The Indian maiden was found wrapped in a bundle of ornaments composed of the skin of an antelope, a plaid shawl, several patterns of colored calico prints, and over all was bound a buffalo robe, tied with thongs of bull's hide. The face was not unpleasant, though the skin and flesh was shrunken to the bone, presenting the appearance of an Egyptian mummy, the dry climate producing an embalming effect. The wrappings were restored to the condition in which they were found, and Stanley brought away a ring from one of the toes, and myself a nicely-worked figure with porcupine quills on the buffalo robe, which soon after was cast away in disgust. So that, our curiosity being appeased, it did not amount to a case of body-snatching.

AN ELECTRICAL SNOW-STORM.

Wonderful Sight Witnessed on Pike's Peak.

In a paper describing a perilous ascent of Pike's Peak, Lieutenant John P. Finley, United States Signal Service, says that the ascent was made in April, when the snow was the deepest of all the year, and the Lieutenant was accompanied by the sergeant of the station. The ascent was accomplished on mule back until a zone of deep snow was reached, and then the animals were taken back to the half-way house below. Into this snow they sometimes sank to their armpits and saved themselves from plunging deeper by spreading out their arms. At one time they crossed a frozen crust in the shape of a turtle's back, where a foothold had to be cut at every step, and where a misstep would have sent them thousands of feet down the mountain. Electric storms sometimes were witnessed there, when each snowflake charged with electricity discharged a spark as it touched a mule's back in its fall. Electric sparks streamed from the finger tips of upraised hands. In their ascent they encountered a storm of sleet that cut their faces so as to draw blood. The last five miles was a fight for life against wind, sleet, cold and rained sleet.

The Maine Mr. and Mrs. Partington are still on deck, says the Lewiston (Me.) Journal. One lady just returned from Boston informs the neighbors that she rode "upstairs in a refrigerator" and had her clothes washed "in a foundry."

A Maine man recently took in a municipal meeting and solemnly announced that "for reasons unknown to himself he desired to resign."

An old lady in Bath recently mortified her relatives intensely. At a grand dinner she overheard a lady guest politely answer to the wielder of the carving knife that "it was immaterial which portion she had."

A ludicrous slice was passed up to her, and our old lady, after an appreciative glance, "guessed" that she would have a small hunk off a the immaterial.

A BRAVE WOMAN.

Heroic Conduct of a French Postmistress During the Franco-German War.

The administration of posts and telegraphs of France has decided to add a grant to the subscription opened for the purpose of erecting a modest memorial to Marie Biard, who saved her country during the Franco-German war in a manner which the most unsentimental person can hardly refuse to regard as heroic.

When the Prussians invaded the Department of the Seine-Inférieure during the campaign of 1870-71, Marie Clementine Biard, then aged twenty, acted as an assistant to her aunt, who was chief postmistress at Aufray. Postal communication was interrupted in the district by the invasion, whereupon Marie Biard carried the letters herself every night during a period of two months over a distance of about twenty-five miles, delivering them at various villages between Dieppe and Rouen.

The enterprise was full of pain and peril. The snow lay thickly on the roads and fields; the German patrols were everywhere, and in order to avoid them, the girl was frequently obliged either to make long circuits or to lie hid for hours in a wood. She was arrested three times by the enemy, but succeeded in escaping on each occasion. After the war the Government offered to promote Marie Biard, but she preferred to remain with her aunt. She died from rheumatism, contracted during her perilous nocturnal expeditions at the time of the war.

DUEL WITH A DEER.

A Massachusetts Hunter Meets with a Surprise.

It isn't often that a healthy Maine deer gives up one horn, keeps the other, and fights a duel with a hunter, says the Bangor News, but it so happened recently. A gentleman named West, of Lynn, Mass., was hunting in Kingsbury and came upon a Thorne brook, where he paused to rest. All at once he beheld a noble-looking deer stalk out upon the brow of the hill above him. He let drive one barrel and the deer fell. Hastily he scrambled up to examine his prize and found to his grief that he had shot one handsome horn off close to the animal's head. The deer was apparently dead. Half in reverie he flitted the horn back upon the deer's head in order to see how the animal would look when intact. To his amazement the deer sprang to his feet and, thoroughly maddened, pitched into his assailant with all the fury of an animal at bay. Mr. West, retaining the disconnected horn in his hand, commenced to belabor the animal, and the battle raged furiously. In the heat of the melee both tumbled plunk into the brook, and this ended the conflict. The deer swam for one bank, while Mr. West clambered out upon the opposite, wet, scared and mad clear through. His clothes were torn, and he received several painful bruises, but hung to the horn. He carried the trophy back to Lynn with him and left a standing offer of fifty dollars for the mate.

A New Minnow Trap.

An ingenious inventor has come to the relief of fishermen lately, by producing a minnow trap that is hard to beat. First of all it is wholly composed of transparent, colorless glass, and is in shape much like a big cartridge, with a pointed bullet in it. It is about two and one-half feet long, and as big around as a man's leg above the knee. It is hollow, of course, and what would be the flat end of the cartridge is punched in, like the bottom of a glass bottle and there is a small round hole in the apex of the cone thus made. The other and the pointed end of the trap is fitted with a little sliding door. This big glass cartridge is intended to be set on its side in the bottom of a brook where minnows abound. The cautious ones soon become accustomed to it, and the reckless fellows don't see it until they bump their noses against it. Some nice bait is put inside the trap, and the minnows soon find their way into it, through the hole in the punched-in end. The little door at the other end is shut, of course.

The minnows are unable to find their way out, because they follow the sides of the trap and this leads them into the cul-de-sac at the flat end, all around the bottom of the cone. They are easily poured out, however, with the water in the trap, by holding the thing up, pointed end down, and opening the little slide door. Wire is twisted around the outside of the trap, and forms a handle by which it is conveniently carried, and the wire also protects the glass from injury.

A Good School Story.

The following story was recently told by a Galveston high school teacher: At one time there was visiting in that city the famous Tom Ochiltree and Mr. Mackay, the California millionaire, and the teacher in question gave out one day "Our Visitors" as the subject for a composition. Among those which were submitted was one by a bright girl which commenced as follows: "We have in our midst two distinguished visitors. Mr. Mackay and Tom Ochiltree, representing, respectively, gold from California and brass from Texas."

A New York Woman's Ruin.

The other night a woman in a house on Broadway flung open the window and indulged in piercing cries of "Murder!" This caused about a thousand people to congregate in the street, and a policeman upon investigation found that a wife had been yelling "Murder!" because her husband was in the habit of leaving her alone every night and she was afraid to be alone. This is a new dodge for keeping pleasure-seeking husbands at home, and if acted upon energetically will tend to reduce club membership not a little.
